Subject: Urgent Matter

June 20, 2012

Honorable Mayor Rahm Emanuel
121 N LaSalle Street
Chicago City Hall 4th Floor
Chicago, IL 60602

Dear Mayor Emanuel:

I am writing to outline a disturbing chain of events that occurred on Thursday, June 14, 2012 at approximately 9:30pm in the Eighth Police District. My brother [REDACTED], was driving his vehicle on [REDACTED] Chicago police officer M. Haleem star #14193 and partner, performed a traffic stop on the vehicle without a clear indication of probable cause to warrant the stop. He asked [REDACTED] who just made 19 years old and is graduating from [REDACTED] this year, for license and insurance, which he had both.

The officer then proceeded to ask him who's name the car was in, why was the car bought, and who bought the car. [REDACTED] stated the car was in his name, bought by our mother for his graduation. The officer asked [REDACTED] to step out of the car, along with my 15 year old cousin and another minor child. They did just as the officers requested as the officers continued with their routine safety precautions (emptying their pockets and asking safety questions). The officers then began to search [REDACTED]'s vehicle including the trunk area. [REDACTED] had in his trunk a couple of paint guns and a BB gun. After discovering the BB gun, the officer then told Anthony and the two minors that they were going to take them into the station. Anthony asked what was the reason and the officer told him for the BB gun and that they are illegal to have. He also told him not to worry that he would be released that same night.

The two minors were released to their parents and [REDACTED] was charged. After my mom, [REDACTED] found out that [REDACTED] had been arrested, she went to the Eighth District Police Station to see why he was charged and what was needed for his release. The arresting officer stated to her "Your son seems to be a good kid, let me show you why he was arrested." He then went to another room or area in the station and brought out with him the BB gun. The officer informed her that he would get an I bond and then be released. My mom asked the officer about his car and the officer stated that the car was going to be impounded and he didn't know how much it would cost. My mom left and Anthony was later released at approximately 4a.m., where he was told that he could not wait at the police station for someone to come get him. He was released without all of his belongings, no way of transportation, and no way to inform anyone where he would be waiting. My mother had to drive around [REDACTED] until she saw my brother wandering the unfortunately dangerous streets of Chicago at 4a.m.

Everything above is disturbing to me, but what is most disturbing is the fact that on the release papers, the officers mentioned above, placed false charges of cannabis on the arrest report. For this reason, the car was impounded with a fee starting at $2100 and recurring charges, a criminal drug arrest record which he never had before, and the possibility of a young black man from the City of Chicago that has the desire to go to college, not being able to receive federal grant money known as financial aid because he now has a drug case. My mother is a small business owner on the south side of Chicago and formally an employee of the Chicago Public Schools. Our immediate family is law abiding citizens and by no means use or deal with drugs or any form. It is a disgrace that because of these charges, we have to try to create a great financial hardship on our family for over $2100 due to the negligence of the City of Chicago Police Department. This seems to not only be a problem in the City, but also a prevalent issue in the Eighth District. I have a younger sister and brother in law that recently won a case that involved a false arrest and some abuse from the Eighth District police officers. They too are successful business owners in the City of Chicago, and by no means have any affiliation with criminal circumstances.

Words cannot express how disappointed and saddened I am with the Chicago Police Department and the racial and discriminatory profiling that happens every day in this great city. I myself am a widow of a Chicago Police officer that committed suicide June 21, 2006. I, like other Chicago police officer spouses once believed in the department and even once considered joining the force to help make the streets of Chicago safer for everyone. Unfortunately, every active officer on the department does not think this way and their motives are not to keep the streets safe, but to receive a pat on the back for making an arrest and trumping up charges to get glory. I pray that this matter and any other false arrest claim be investigated at the highest level possible. I also pray that additional training on ethics, humanity and civil rights be presented in the near future to the officers who has duly sworn in to serve and protect the civilians of Chicago. Thank you for an expedient response and a solution to these issues.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
